String Theory is now on a year-round calendar. We have removed the weeks off that correspond to local school schedules as these vary by town and do not apply to all of our students. We will continue to flex schedule for our families during July and August as always! We will be open every week except Thanksgiving, Christmas/New Year, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, and Labor Day. There are an additional 6-7 weeks per year in our schedule above other schools with no increase in membership rates. Due to the flexibility of our makeup policy, most of our missed lessons are rescheduled. Individual contracts will be audited at the conclusion of their six month term, and two student makeup lessons are guaranteed if needed. Teacher absences may be rescheduled or credited based on the individual teacher/student needs as always. Performance groups will generally not be rescheduled unless it is at the request of the instructor. Students who cannot attend a rescheduled group will be credited. Group classes will not be subject to a makeup schedule. Teacher absences will be subbed out. Thanks!
